

Adjective vs. Adverb

Fill in the blanks.

1. You need some rest.

bad

badly

2. I got any sleep last night.

hardly

rarely

little

3. Try and you will succeed.

hard

hardly

Adjective vs. Adverb

4. I know anyone here.

hardly

rarely

5. It happened all of a sudden

suddenly

6. he felt dizzy and collapsed on the floor.

Sudden

Suddenly

7. He behaved

Please select 2 correct answers

Adjective vs. Adverb

cowardly

like a coward

in a cowardly manner

8. He resembles his father

close closely

9. He became when he heard the news.

angry

angrily

10. The milk has turned

Adjective vs. Adverb

sour

sourly

11. I feel feverish

feverishly

12. He is getting day and day.

good

better

Answers

You badly need some rest.

I got hardly any sleep last night.

Try hard and you will succeed.

I know hardly anyone here.

It happened all of a sudden.

Adjective vs. Adverb

Suddenly he felt dizzy and collapsed on the floor.

He behaved in a cowardly manner / like a coward.

He resembles his father closely.

He became angry when he heard the news.

The milk has turned sour.

I feel feverish.

He is getting better day and day.