

Adverbs With Two Forms

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the adverb.

1. His condition is serious.

dead

deadly

2. Tempers ran high highly

3. The prisoners were treated

.....

bad

badly

Adverbs With Two Forms

4. I am sure of his involvement in this.

dead

deadly

5. The program was amusing.

highly

high

6. The ball hit him on the face.

right

rightly

Adverbs With Two Forms

7. I assumed that she was willing to help.

right

rightly

8. She left after breakfast.

right

rightly

9. 'Can you lend me your pen?'
'.....'

Sure

Surely

Adverbs With Two Forms

10. A good dancer dances

.....

good

well

11. She always arrives

late

lately

12. I haven't read anything interesting

.....

late

lately

Adverbs With Two Forms

Answers

1. His condition is deadly serious.
2. Tempers ran high.
3. The prisoners were treated badly.
4. I am dead sure of his involvement in this.
5. The program was highly amusing.
6. The ball hit him right on the face.
7. I rightly assumed that she was willing to help.
8. She left right after breakfast.
9. 'Can you lend me your pen?' 'Sure.'
10. A good dancer dances well.
11. She always arrives late.
12. I haven't read anything interesting lately.