

Both, either and neither

Complete the following sentences using both, either or neither.

1. I didn't like of these two dresses.

either

both

neither

2. I like of these. Have you got another one?

either

both

neither

3. of them have been invited.

Both

Both, either and neither

Either

Neither

4. I have invited of them.

Please select 2 correct answers

both

neither

either

5. I haven't invited of them.

either

both

neither

Both, either and neither

6. They were eager to hear the news.

either

both

neither

7. Martin and James are brilliant boys.

Both

Either

Neither

8. 'I know you don't like me. I don't like you
.....

both

either

Both, either and neither

neither

9. Martin nor James turned up today.

Both

Either

Neither

10. She is intelligent nor hardworking.

neither

either

both

Both, either and neither

Answers

1. I didn't like either of these two dresses.
2. I like neither of these. Have you got another one?
3. Both of them have been invited.
4. I have invited neither / both of them. (Meanings are very different.)
5. I haven't invited either of them.
6. They were both eager to hear the news.
7. Both Martin and James are brilliant boys.
8. 'I know you don't like me. I don't like you either.'
9. Neither Martin nor James turned up today.
10. She is neither intelligent nor hardworking.