

Combine Using Present Or Perfect Participles

Fill in the blanks.

1. He injured his knee football.

playing

having played

2. tired and sleepy, I went to bed early.

Feeling

Having felt

3. aloud, he ran out of the house.

Crying

Having cried

Combine Using Present Or Perfect Participles

4. work, he started looking for somewhere to live.

Finding

Having found

5. merrily, she walked into the room.

Singing

Having sung

6. out of the window, she plucked the fruits.

Leaning

Having leaned

Combine Using Present Or Perfect Participles

7. a gun out of his pocket, he threatened to kill me.

Pulling

Having pulled

8. his job, he is struggling to meet his expenses.

Losing

Having lost

9. that movie, I was not keen on watching it again.

Already seeing

Having already seen

Combine Using Present Or Perfect Participles

10. all his money, he went home.

Losing

Having lost

11. a vegetarian, she doesn't eat fish or meat.

Being

Having been

12. able to speak the local language, I had difficulty conversing with the local people.

Not being

Not having been

Combine Using Present Or Perfect Participles

Answers

He injured his knee playing football.

Feeling tired and sleepy, I went to bed early.

Crying aloud, he ran out of the house.

Having found work, he started looking for somewhere to live.

Singing merrily, she walked into the room.

Leaning out of the window, she plucked the fruits.

Pulling a gun out of his pocket, he threatened to kill me.

Having lost his job, he is struggling to meet his expenses.

Having already seen that movie, I was not keen on watching it again.

Having lost all his money, he went home.

Being a vegetarian, she doesn't eat fish or meat.

Not being able to speak the local language, I had difficulty conversing with the local people.