

Confusing Words Exercise

Fill in the blanks to make meaningful sentences.

1. I the papers to his office.

took brought

Either could be used here

2. This is a lovely beach. Thanks for me here.

taking

bringing

Either could be used here

3. like swimming.

Both my parents

Both of my parents

Confusing Words Exercise

Either could be used here

4. I my camera to James and I never saw it again.

lent

borrowed

Either could be used here

5. What are the main differences dogs, wolves and foxes?

between

among

Either could be used here

6. I had unpleasant experience in the

Confusing Words Exercise

morning.

a rather

a bit

a little

7. The house is very small.

that I live in

where I live

Either could be used here

8. American football is very different soccer.

from

to

than

Confusing Words Exercise

All of the above

9. At no time her self-control.

she did lose

did she lose

she lost

10. I going to new places and meeting new people.

like very much

very much like

Either could be used here

11. A crocodile starts life an egg.

like

Confusing Words Exercise

as

Either could be used here

12. Could you if dad is in the garage?

Please select 2 correct answers

see

look

look to see

Answers

1. I took the papers to his office.
2. This is a lovely beach. Thanks for bringing me here.
3. Both / both of my parents like swimming.
4. I lent my camera to James and I never saw it again.
5. What are the main differences between dogs, wolves and foxes?
6. I had a rather unpleasant experience in the morning.
7. The house that I live in / where I live is very small.
8. American football is very different from / to / than soccer.
9. At no time did she lose her self-control.
10. I very much like going to new places and meeting new people.

Confusing Words Exercise

11. A crocodile starts life as an egg.
12. Could you see / look to see if dad is in the garage?