

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

Fill in the blanks with appropriate demonstrative, indefinite, distributive or reciprocal pronouns.

1. .... must not boast of one's success.

We

One

They

2. Both paintings are good but this is better than .....

that this what

3. .... loves beautiful things.

Everybody

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

Somebody

Anybody

4. .... was there to rescue the child from drowning.

Nobody

Anybody

No body

5. .... of them rose from their seats shouting slogans.

All

Every

Any

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

6. .... could answer my questions.

Nobody

Anybody

No body

7. Did ..... write with my pen when I was away?

anybody

somebody

nobody

8. My views are in accordance with ..... of yours.

that

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

those these

9. The two brothers love .....

each other

each others

one another

10. .... of the accusations is true.

Either

Neither

11. All the five members of the family quarreled with .....

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

each other

one another

12. They praised ..... to gain cheap popularity.

they

each other

each others

Answers

1. One must not boast of one's success.
2. Both paintings are good but this is better than that.
3. Everybody loves beautiful things.
4. Nobody was there to rescue the child from drowning.
5. All of them rose from their seats shouting slogans.
6. Nobody could answer my questions.

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

7. Did anybody write with my pen when I was away?
8. My views are in accordance with those of yours.
9. The two brothers love each other.
10. Neither of the accusations is true.
11. All the five members of the family quarreled with one another.
12. They praised each other to gain cheap popularity.