Did vs. Had

Fill in the blanks with did or had.

We did to make questions and negatives in the simple past tense. Had is used before a past participle to make the past perfect tense form.

1. .... you receive my email?

Did

Had

2. She .... returned even after midnight.

didn't hadn't

3. What .... you do then?

had

did

4. Why .... you push me?

did

had

5. .... they gone before you arrived?

Did

Had

6. They .... already left.

did

had

7. She .... reply to my emails.

didn't

hadn't

8. They .... left the door open.

did

had

9. Somebody .... broken into the house while we were away.

had

did

10. She .... lost her ticket.

did

had

11. .... you find anything useful?

Did

Had

12. .... you see him there?

Did

Had

Answers

1. Did you receive my email?

2. She hadn't returned even after midnight.

3. What did you do then?

4. Why did you push me?

5. Had they gone before you arrived?

6. They had already left.

7. She didn't reply to my emails.

8. They had left the door open.

9. Somebody had broken into the house while we were away.

10. She had lost her ticket.

11. Did you find anything useful?

12. Did you see him there?