

Each and every

This grammar exercise tests your ability to use each and every correctly. Complete the following sentences using an appropriate word or phrase.

1. I visit my parents every week

weeks

Either could be used here

2. Buses run ten minutes.

every

each

Either could be used here

3. She had a child holding on to hand.

each

Each and every

every

Either could be used here

4. She was carrying bags in each hand

hands

Either could be used here

5. The two brothers love each other another

Either could be used here

6. Everybody come.

Each and every has have

Either could be used here

7. of us sees the world differently.

Each

Every

Either could be used here

8. You can apply for your own membership cards.

each

every

Either could be used here

Each and every

9. I spoke to of the boys in the class.

each

every

Either could be used here

10. She sent them a present.

each

every

Either could be used here

Answers

1. I visit my parents every week.
2. Buses run every ten minutes.
3. She had a child holding on to each hand.

Each and every

4. She was carrying bags in each hand.
5. The two brothers love each other.
6. Everybody has come.
7. Each of us sees the world differently.
8. You can each apply for your own membership cards.
9. I spoke to each of the boys in the class.
10. She sent them each a present.