

Each vs. Every

Fill in the blanks with each or every.

1. You have to change the sheets .....
other day.

each

every

Either could be used here

2. Buses leave ..... ten minutes.

each

every

Either could be used here

3. .... team in a cricket game has 11 players.

Each

Each vs. Every

Every

Either could be used here

4. .... of them was given a present.

Each

Every

Either could be used here

5. I could understand ..... word she said.

each

every

Either could be used here

Each vs. Every

6. The four students ..... received a laptop.

each

every

Either could be used here

7. She kissed them ..... on the forehead.

each

every

Either could be used here

8. There is ..... chance that we will win.

every

each

Each vs. Every

Either could be used here

9. .... of them was asked to speak for a few minutes.

Each

Every

Either could be used here

10. I visit my grandparents ..... now and then.

every

each

Either could be used here

11. I have written to ..... friend I

Each vs. Every

have.

every

each

Either could be used here

12. Almost ..... child in cities receives school education.

every

each

Either could be used here

Answers

You have to change the sheets every other day.

Buses leave every ten minutes.

Each team in a cricket game has 11 players.

Each of them was given a present.

I could understand every word she said.

The four students each received a laptop.

Each vs. Every

She kissed them each on the forehead.

There is every chance that we will win.

Each of them was asked to speak for a few minutes.

I visit my grandparents every now and then.

I have written to every / each friend I have.

Almost every child in cities receives school education.