

English Vocabulary Exercise

Complete the following sentences. This English exercise tests your range of vocabulary.

1. The new ambassador is fully
..... by his government.

credited

accredited

accosted

2. The invention of the electric light is accredited
..... Edison.

with

for

to

3. I was by a friend on the street.

greeted

English Vocabulary Exercise

accosted

4. Grandmother has ideas about etiquette.

antique

ancient

antiquated

5. Doctors rushed an to the boy who had been bitten by the snake.

anecdote

antidote

6. A well-groomed woman can't fix her hair just
.....

Please select 2 correct answers

English Vocabulary Exercise

anyway

anyhow

anyways

7. The plight of starving natives was

.....

appealing

appalling

appaling

8. What is your of the situation?

apprisal

appraisal

apraisal

English Vocabulary Exercise

9. You have not your fee yet.

payed

paid

10. Her salary is with her ability and experience.

Please select 2 correct answers

commiserate

commensurate

commensurable

11. The monument local war heroes.

commensurates

commiserates

English Vocabulary Exercise

commemorates

12. The reviews were full of remarks on the actor's performance.

complimentary

complementary

complimentary

Answers

1. The new ambassador is fully accredited by his government.
2. The invention of the electric light is accredited to Edison.
3. I was greeted by a friend on the street.
4. Grandmother has antiquated ideas about etiquette.
5. Doctors rushed an antidote to the boy who had been bitten by the snake.
6. A well-groomed woman can't fix her hair just anyhow / anyway.
7. The plight of starving natives was appalling.
8. What is your appraisal of the situation?
9. You have not paid your fee yet.
10. Her salary is commensurate / commensurable with her ability and experience.
11. The monument commemorates local war heroes.
12. The reviews were full of complimentary remarks on the actor's performance.