

English Vocabulary Exercise

From the given options, choose a word that can replace the keyword.

1. She takes a wayward delight in disagreeing with everyone. The word wayward can be replaced by

perturbed

nonplussed

perverse

2. The teacher was perturbed by the student's lack of interest. The word perturbed can be replaced by

discarded

nonplussed

disconcerted

3. He has a perverted sense of right and wrong. The word perverted can be replaced by

English Vocabulary Exercise

.....

discomfited

dissuaded

distorted

4. She stood there, frozen with fear. The word frozen can be replaced by

pestered

putrefied

petrified

5. When he doesn't get his way, he can be quite peevish. Here the word peevish can be replaced by

meek

pervasive

English Vocabulary Exercise

petulant

6. Should parents be strict or indulgent? Here the word indulgent can be replaced by

.....

permissive

pervasive

nonchalant

7. I am tired of his perpetual nagging. Here the word perpetual can be replaced by

.....

recurring

incessant

intermittent

English Vocabulary Exercise

8. She is much too assertive to cooperate with others. Here the word assertive can be replaced by

perilous

preposterous

peremptory

9. The fat boy had a preference for rich desserts. Here the word preference can be replaced by

penchant

petulance

niche

10. When you ask him a question, you get a pedantic answer. Here the word pedantic can be replaced by

English Vocabulary Exercise

delectable

diligent

didactic

11. The poodle had an impressive lineage. Here the word lineage can be replaced by

.....

generation

class

pedigree

12. The idea of a chaperon for a dating couple is passé. Here the word passé can be replaced by

.....

modern

revolutionary

English Vocabulary Exercise

obsolete

Answers

1. She takes a wayward delight in disagreeing with everyone. The word wayward can be replaced by perverse.
2. The teacher was perturbed by the student's lack of interest. The word perturbed can be replaced by disconcerted.
3. He has a perverted sense of right and wrong. The word perverted can be replaced by distorted.
4. She stood there, frozen with fear. The word frozen can be replaced by petrified.
5. When he doesn't get his way, he can be quite peevish. Here the word peevish can be replaced by petulant.
6. Should parents be strict or indulgent? Here the word indulgent can be replaced by permissive.
7. I am tired of his perpetual nagging. Here the word perpetual can be replaced by incessant.
8. She is much too assertive to cooperate with others. Here the word assertive can be replaced by peremptory.
9. The fat boy had a preference for rich desserts. Here the word preference can be replaced by penchant.
10. When you ask him a question, you get a pedantic answer. Here the word pedantic can be replaced by didactic.
11. The poodle had an impressive lineage. Here the word lineage can be replaced by pedigree.
12. The idea of a chaperon for a dating couple is passé. Here the word passé can be replaced by obsolete.