

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. Try not to her with such gruesome stories.

horrify

horror

horrible

2. They are very to their guests.

hostable

hospitable

hospitable

3. The forces fought for possession of the mountain pass.

hospitable

English Vocabulary Exercise

hostile

hostility

4. Helping that family was a very thing to do.

human

humane

Either could be used here

5. With he thanked everyone for their help.

humanity

humility

humiliation

English Vocabulary Exercise

6. You have to him when he is in one of those moods.

humor

humorous

humore

7. We were asked a question.

hypothesis

hypothetical

hypothetic

8. Not even this bitter experience crushed his

ideal

ideology

English Vocabulary Exercise

idealism

9. can be congenital or caused by some childhood illness.

Idiocy

Idiotcy

Idiosyncrasy

10. Jim is quite knowledgeable but pretends to be an

ignorant

ignoramus

ignominious

11. My departure is

English Vocabulary Exercise

imminent

eminent

emminent

12. Wild animals are

immoral

amoral

immortal

Answers

1. Try not to horrify her with such gruesome stories.
2. They are very hospitable to their guests.
3. The hostile forces fought for possession of the mountain pass.
4. Helping that family was a very human / humane thing to do.
5. With humility he thanked everyone for their help.
6. You have to humor him when he is in one of those moods.
7. We were asked a hypothetical question.
8. Not even this bitter experience crushed his idealism.
9. Idiocy can be congenital or caused by some childhood illness.
10. Jim is quite knowledgeable but pretends to be an ignoramus.

English Vocabulary Exercise

11. My departure is imminent.
12. Wild animals are amoral.