

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate word. Choose your answers from the given options.

1. She always to her elder sister.

defers

deflects

defaces

2. May I return this toaster if it is?

deflective

defective

deferential

3. The policeman's badge the bullet.

defaced

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

deduced

deflected

4. His treatment of the elderly people was affectionate and

defiance

deferential

defunct

5. She has a that makes walking difficult.

defiance

deformity

deflection

6. After all those expenses, we ended the year with a deficit

decorum

deference

7. The company has been since the war.

defunct

deferential

deflective

8. He the book by writing on it.

decorated

deferred

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

defaced

9. The child showed by refusing to eat.

reluctance

defiance

decorum

10. From her conversation, I that she had a large family.

deferred

deflected

deduced

11. I it advisable to buy property now.

deter

deem

denounce

12. Jennifer always acts with

defunct

deferential

decorum

Answers

1. She always defers to her elder sister.
2. May I return this toaster if it is defective?
3. The policeman's badge deflected the bullet.
4. His treatment of the elderly people was affectionate and deferential.

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

5. She has a deformity that makes walking difficult.
6. After all those expenses, we ended the year with a deficit.
7. The company has been defunct since the war.
8. He defaced the book by writing on it.
9. The child showed defiance by refusing to eat.
10. From her conversation, I deduced that she had a large family.
11. I deem it advisable to buy property now.
12. Jennifer always acts with decorum.