

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

Fill in the blanks with enough, so or too.

1. These bananas are not ..... to be eaten.

enough ripe

ripe enough

so ripe

2. They are ..... to buy anything.

too rich

so rich

enough rich

rich enough

3. The coat was ..... for me to buy.

so expensive

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

too expensive

expensive enough

4. She is ..... beautiful.

so

too

enough

5. It is ..... expensive.

so

too

Either could be used here

6. She is ..... young to understand

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

better.

too

so

very

7. She is ..... to know better.

too old

old enough

so old

8. He was ..... weak to even sit up.

so

too

very

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

9. He was ..... weak that he could not even sit up.

so

too

very

10. The wall was ..... for me to climb.

too high

so high

high enough

11. The soup is ..... for me to relish.

too salty

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

very salty

salty enough

12. He was ..... to realize his mistake.

so smart

too smart

enough smart

smart enough

Answers

1. These bananas are not ripe enough to be eaten.
2. They are rich enough to buy anything.
3. The coat was too expensive for me to buy.
4. She is so beautiful.

Enough, So, Too - Grammar Exercise for Beginners

5. It is so/too expensive.
6. She is too young to understand better.
7. She is old enough to know better.
8. He was too weak to even sit up.
9. He was so weak that he could not even sit up.
10. The wall was too high for me to climb.
11. The soup is too salty for me to relish.
12. He was smart enough to realize his mistake.