

Focusing Adverbs Position

Fill in the blanks.

1. She at me.

even didn't look

didn't even look

did even not look

didn't look even

2. It in the evening.

probably will rain

will probably rain

will rain probably

3. That her.

certainly will annoy

Focusing Adverbs Position

will certainly annoy

will annoy certainly

4. She write her own name.

even cannot

can even not

cannot even

can not even

5. I working on the project.

almost have finished

have finished almost

have almost finished

Focusing Adverbs Position

6. I my old friends.

often visit

visit often

Either could be used here

7. I to lock the car.

forgot stupidly

stupidly forgot

stupid forgot

8. Choose the correct sentence(s).

Please select 2 correct answers

She quickly got dressed.

She got dressed quickly

Focusing Adverbs Position

She got quickly dressed

9. Choose the correct sentence.

He left in a hurry.

He in a hurry left.

Either could be used here

10. Choose the correct sentence.

She at once realized her mistake.

At once she realized her mistake.

She realized her mistake at once.

All of these

11. I him.

Focusing Adverbs Position

have never understood

never have understood

have understood never

12. I to their parties.

am often invited

often am invited

am invited often

Answers

She didn't even look at me.

It will probably rain in the evening.

That will certainly annoy her.

She cannot even write her own name.

I have almost finished working on the project.

I often visit my old friends.

I stupidly forgot to lock the car.

She quickly got dressed. / She got dressed quickly.

He left in a hurry.

All of these

Focusing Adverbs Position

I have never understood him.

I am often invited to their parties.