

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. There was ..... anything in the box.

hard

hardly

2. There lay ..... books on the table.

few

a few

a little

3. .... the thunderstorm approaching, we rushed indoors.

See

Seen

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

Seeing

4. .... on tip-toe, he reached for the apple.

Standing

Stand

Stood

5. Would you mind ..... the door?

to close

closing

close

6. You ..... attend the

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

meeting.

needn't

needn't to

don't need

7. You had better ..... a doctor.

consult

consulting

to consult

8. You don't need ..... all questions.

answer

to answer

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

answering

9. Beethoven is ..... than most other composers.

great

greater

greatest

10. I prefer watching TV ..... reading books.

than

over

to

11. He is ..... of my four

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

children.

the young

the younger

the youngest

12. The older we grow, .....
we become.

the wise

wiser

the wiser

the wisest

Answers

There was hardly anything in the box.

There lay a few books on the table.

Seeing the thunderstorm approaching, we rushed indoors.

Gap Filling Grammar Exercise

Standing on tip-toe, he reached for the apple.

Would you mind closing the door?

You needn't attend the meeting.

You had better consult a doctor.

You don't need to answer all questions.

Beethoven is greater than most other composers.

I prefer watching TV to reading books.

He is the youngest of my four children.

The older we grow, the wiser we become.