

Gap Fills Exercise

This grammar exercise tests your understanding of basic grammar rules and structures.

1. She red and ran out of the room.

turned became grew

2. Alice is the person keeps a deer in the garden shed.

who

whom

which

3. A deer is Alice keeps in the garden shed.

that

Gap Fills Exercise

what

which

4. The baby's eyes are not at all the same color yours.

as

like

Either could be used here

5. She looks older than her daughter.

no

not

Either could be used here

Gap Fills Exercise

6. I haven't seen him ages.

for

from since

7. Samuel and decided to split up.

I have

I've

Either could be used here

8. The village I live is very beautiful.

which

that

Gap Fills Exercise

where

9. If you have already had measles, you are unlikely to get again.

it

them

10. I have difficulty dates.

remembering

in remembering

Either could be used here

11. My grandfather is eighty-five but he still enjoys health.

good

Gap Fills Exercise

a good

12. Have you bought the groceries

grocery

Answers

1. She turned red and ran out of the room.
2. Alice is the person who keeps a deer in the garden shed.
3. A deer is what Alice keeps in the garden shed.
4. The baby's eyes are not at all the same color as yours.
5. She looks no older than her daughter.
6. I haven't seen him for ages.
7. Samuel and I have decided to split up.
8. The village where I live is very beautiful.
9. If you have already had measles, you are unlikely to get it again.
10. I have difficulty remembering / in remembering dates.
11. My grandfather is eighty-five but he still enjoys good health.
12. Have you bought the groceries?