

General English Exercise

Complete the following sentences.

1. I would rather read a book

then watch TV

than watch TV

than to watch TV

2. she goes, she is surrounded by crowds of people.

Whoever

Wherever

Whichever

3. Neither the manager nor the workers
..... guilty.

is

General English Exercise

are

was

4. Do you know James father teaches at the academy?

who

whom whose

5. Hardly had they heard the gunshots,
.....

than they started running

when they started running

then they started running

General English Exercise

6. If I had two cars, I will sell one would sell one

would have sold one

7. she is rich, she is not happy.

As

Though

However

8. You and I can do it, ? Add question tag.

can't I can't you

General English Exercise

can't we

9. A person who writes or compiles a dictionary is a biographer

author

lexicographer

10. The old parents for a letter from their son for two months.

are waiting

has been waiting

have been waiting

General English Exercise

Answers

1. I would rather read a book than watch TV.
2. Wherever she goes, she is surrounded by crowds of people.
3. Neither the manager nor the workers are guilty.
4. Do you know James whose father teaches at the academy?
5. Hardly had they heard the gunshots when they started running.
6. If I had two cars, I would sell one.
7. Though she is rich, she is not happy.
8. You and I can do it, can't we?
9. Lexicographer
10. The old parents have been waiting for a letter from their son for two months.