

Gerund or infinitive?

Complete the following sentences using gerunds or infinitives.

1. I tried a ticket, but they were all sold out.

to get

getting

2. I tried to the manager personally, but that didn't help.

to speak

speaking

3. We regret you that the flight has been cancelled.

to inform informing

Gerund or infinitive?

4. The doctor has asked me to stop

.....

to smoke

smoking

5. She went on a celebrated writer a few years later.

becoming

to become

6. I regret so badly last night.

to behave

behaving

Gerund or infinitive?

7. Remember me up
at 6 am.

to wake

waking

8. I forgot the door before
I left.

to lock

locking

9. I remember the keys
on the table.

to leave

leaving

Gerund or infinitive?

Answers

1. I tried to get a ticket, but they were all sold out.
2. I tried speaking to the manager personally, but that didn't help.
3. We regret to inform you that the flight has been cancelled.
4. The doctor has asked me to stop smoking.
5. She went on to become a celebrated writer a few years later.
6. I regret behaving so badly last night.
7. Remember to wake me up at 6 am.
8. I forgot to lock the door before I left.
9. I remember leaving the keys on the table.