

Gerund or infinitive?

Some verbs and adjectives can be followed by either an -ing form or an infinitive. In some cases, there is a difference of meaning.

Complete the following sentences using either a gerund or an infinitive.

1. I still remember ..... my first car.

to buy

buying

2. Don't forget ..... the door when you leave.

locking

to lock

3. I enjoyed ..... the movie.

watching

to watch

Gerund or infinitive?

4. She avoided ..... them because she was in a hurry to leave.

meeting

to meet

5. You promised ..... me a diamond necklace for my birthday.

to buy

buying

6. She has agreed .....

to come

coming

7. I thanked them ..... me out.

Gerund or infinitive?

to help

for helping

8. I expect him ..... at 4 o'clock.

calling

to call

9. Would you like ..... with us?

coming

to come

10. I don't feel like ..... it.

doing

to do

Gerund or infinitive?

Answers

1. I still remember buying my first car.
2. Don't forget to lock the door when you leave.
3. I enjoyed watching the movie.
4. She avoided meeting them because she was in a hurry to leave.
5. You promised to buy me a diamond necklace for my birthday.
6. She has agreed to come.
7. I thanked them for helping me out.
8. I expect him to call at 4 o'clock.
9. Would you like to come with us?
10. I don't feel like doing it.