

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate preposition.

1. Did you hear the explosion at the mall?

about

of

2. That song reminds me my childhood.

off

of

3. She complained his rude behavior.

about

off

over

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

4. They took him to hospital when he complained chest pain and uneasiness.

of

on

over

5. He warned me dire consequences.

off

of

6. Have you heard him?

on

of

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

7. What did you think his latest film?

of

off

8. We haven't decided but we are thinking moving to a bigger home.

about

off

9. I wouldn't dream doing something like that.

about

of

Grammar exercise: about, of, on and off

10. I had never thought it before.

on

of

Answers

1. Did you hear about the explosion at the mall?
2. That song reminds me of my childhood.
3. She complained about his rude behavior.
4. They took him to hospital when he complained of chest pain and uneasiness.
5. He warned me of dire consequences.
6. Have you heard of him?
7. What did you think of his latest film?
8. We haven't decided but we are thinking about moving to a bigger home.
9. I wouldn't dream of doing something like that.
10. I had never thought of it before.