

For, since, in and from: grammar exercise

Complete the following sentences using for, in, from or since.

1. I once studied the piano three years.

for

since

in

2. That house has been empty two years.

since

for

from

3. I have known her a long time.

for

For, since, in and from: grammar exercise

since

from

4. We go away three weeks every summer.

since

for

from

5. How long are you here?

since

from

for

For, since, in and from: grammar exercise

6. It was the worst storm years.

Please select 2 correct answers

in

for

since

7. I will be here four o'clock onwards.

from

since

for

8. I work nine to five.

from

since

For, since, in and from: grammar exercise

for

9. I have known her three days.

from

for

since

10. the dawn of civilization,
people have made war.

Please select 2 correct answers

From

since

For

Answers

For, since, in and from: grammar exercise

1. I once studied the piano for three years.
2. That house has been empty for two years.
3. I have known her for a long time.
4. We go away for three weeks every summer.
5. How long are you here for?
6. It was the worst storm in / for years.
7. I will be here from four o'clock onwards.
8. I work from nine to five.
9. I have known her for three days.
10. Since / from the dawn of civilization people have made war.