

Grammar exercise: which word is wrong?

Identify the word or phrase that needs to be removed from the sentence to make it correct.

1. Take the book with you in case you will see Mary.

with

in case

will

2. That's the house where he was born in.

where

was

in

3. She had died a couple of years ago.

had

a

Grammar exercise: which word is wrong?

of

4. He asked that what I was doing.

that

what

was

5. He asked to her why she was angry.

to

why

was

6. When I will go to Mexico, I will see him.

will

Grammar exercise: which word is wrong?

to

when

7. He is very much angry.

very much

8. Yesterday in the evening he came to dinner.

in the

came

to

9. This is my friend who he was at school with me.

who

Grammar exercise: which word is wrong?

he

at

10. Supposing if you fail, what will you do?

if

fail

will

Answers

1. will (The sentence should read: Take the book with you in case you see Mary.)
2. in (The sentence should read: That is the house where he was born.)
3. had (The sentence should read: She died a couple of years ago.)
4. that (The sentence should read: He asked what I was doing.)
5. to (The sentence should read: He asked her why she was angry.)
6. will (The sentence should read: When I go to Mexico, I will see him.)

Grammar exercise: which word is wrong?

- 7. much (The sentence should read: He is very angry.)
- 8. in the (The sentence should read: Yesterday evening he came to dinner.)
- 9. he (The sentence should read: This is my friend who was at school with me.)
- 10. if (The sentence should read: Supposing you fail, what will you do?)