

Identify the tense form

Read the sentences given below and identify the tense form used in each of them.

1. They had been waiting for the train.

past perfect tense active past perfect continuous active past perfect passive

2. India has not won many Olympic gold medals.

present perfect passive

present perfect active

past perfect active

3. The film was not interesting.

past continuous active past continuous passive

Identify the tense form

simple past active

4. The boy was punished for lying.

simple past active

simple past passive

past perfect active

5. Your order has been shipped.

present perfect active

present perfect passive

simple present active

simple past active

6. The house is being built by masons.

Identify the tense form

present continuous active present continuous passive

past continuous active

7. Who are you waiting for?

present continuous tense active present continuous tense passive

simple past active

8. We have been living in this street for well over ten years.

present continuous tense active

present perfect tense passive present perfect continuous tense active

Identify the tense form

9. Trains will be running late.

simple future tense active simple future tense passive future continuous tense active future continuous tense passive

10. The news is too good to be true.

simple present active

simple present passive

simple past active

Answers

1. past perfect continuous tense active
2. present perfect active
3. simple past tense active

Identify the tense form

4. simple past passive
5. present perfect tense passive
6. present continuous tense passive
7. present continuous tense active
8. present perfect continuous tense active
9. future continuous tense active
10. simple present tense active