

Identify The Adverb

Identify the adverb in the following sentences.

1. He is so pigheaded you can't reason with him.

so

pigheaded

with

2. Sailing alone around the world was quite a pilgrimage.

sailing

quite privilege

3. The admiral was always nonchalant in the face of danger.

always

Identify The Adverb

nonchalant

of

4. A person's outward appearance was formerly thought to reveal his character.

outward

formerly

reveal

5. Wearing nothing but blue clothing is only one of her peculiarities.

nothing

blue

only

Identify The Adverb

6. He was seen driving northward.

seen

driving

northward

7. I have told you this twice.

have

this twice

8. That day he arrived late.

that

arrived

late

Identify The Adverb

9. I have already spoken to him about this.

have already

to

10. Luckily we escaped unhurt.

luckily

escaped

unhurt

11. My dog understands everything. He is almost human.

everything

almost

Identify The Adverb

human

12. I am fully prepared for the examination.

am

fully prepared

Answers

He is so pigheaded you can't reason with him. (Adverb - so)

Sailing alone around the world was quite a pilgrimage. (Adverb - quite)

The admiral was always nonchalant in the face of danger. (Adverb - always)

A person's outward appearance was formerly thought to reveal his character. (Adverb - formerly)

Wearing nothing but blue clothing is only one of her peculiarities. (Adverb - only)

He was seen driving northward. (Adverb - northward)

I have told you this twice. (Adverb - twice)

That day he arrived late. (Adverb - late)

I have already spoken to him about this. (Adverb - already)

Luckily we escaped unhurt. (Adverb - luckily)

My dog understands everything. He is almost human. (Adverb - almost)

I am fully prepared for the examination. (Adverb - fully)