

Personal pronouns exercise

Fill in the blanks with appropriate personal pronouns. Choose your answers from the options given in the brackets.

1. need help.

I

Me

2. It's that needs help.

me

you

they

3. John has broken his leg.
..... will be in hospital for a few days.

He

Him

Personal pronouns exercise

His

4. Tell Jane I miss

she

her

he

5. Jane and Alice are friends.
..... like each other very much.

They

Them

She

6. 'Who's that over there?' '.....'

Personal pronouns exercise

is Peter Cook.'

They

She

It

7. 'Hello. is Alan Williams.'

I

It

He

8. Mary is learning music.

..... has a golden voice.

She

Her

Personal pronouns exercise

9. On Mary's birthday, Alice gave
..... a watch.

she

her

10. Harry is a brilliant student.
..... has won many prizes.

He

Him

They

Answers

1. I need help.
2. It's me that needs help.
3. John has broken his leg. He will be in hospital for a few days.
4. Tell Jane I miss her.

Personal pronouns exercise

5. Jane and Alice are friends. They like each other very much.

6. 'Who's that over there?' 'It is Peter Cook.'

7. 'Hello. It is Alan Williams.'

8. Mary is learning music. She has a golden voice.

9. On Mary's birthday, Alice gave her a watch.

10. Harry is a brilliant student. He has won many prizes.

Grammar notes

Pronouns that are used as subjects of verbs are: I, he, she, we, they and you.

Pronouns that are used as objects of verbs or prepositions are: me, him, her, us, them and you. Note that you does not change.