

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate preposition or adverb particle.

1. The woman broke in the middle of her speech.

off

out

down

2. Please blow the candle.

up

out

off

3. At last the storm has blown

out

off

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

over

4. The opposition parties are planning to bring a No-Confidence Motion against the Prime Minister.

up

out

forward

5. The accused said that he couldn't call the whole events.

in

out

up

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

6. The workers have called the strike.

out

off

for

7. The investigators tried to call crucial information from him.

up

forth

in

8. The terrorist's plan to blow the bridge was foiled by police.

out

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

over

up

9. She is cut for a job of this kind.

up

out

in

10. If you work hard you will come with flying colours.

out

off

up

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

11. The publishers are bringing a new edition of this book.

out

up on

12. The scheme fell for want of support.

through out

off

Answers

1. The woman broke down in the middle of her speech.
2. Please blow out the candle.
3. At last the storm has blown over.
4. The opposition parties are planning to bring forward a No-Confidence Motion against the Prime Minister.

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

5. The accused said that he couldn't call up the whole events.
6. The workers have called off the strike.
7. The investigators tried to call forth crucial information from him.
8. The terrorist's plan to blow up the bridge was foiled by police.
9. She is cut out for a job of this kind.
10. If you work hard you will come off with flying colours.
11. The publishers are bringing out a new edition of this book.
12. The scheme fell through for want of support.