

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate phrasal verb.

1. Even though she is a graduate, she cannot put her ideas in English.

out

across

in

2. If you want to lose weight, you must cut on your consumption of fast food.

out

down

in

3. They have the meeting.

put up

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

put on

put off

4. He after a prolonged battle with cancer.

passed out

passed away

passed off

5. She her grandmother.

takes on

takes after

takes out

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

6. Nobody can with him.
He has such a short temper.

get off

get over

get along

7. I will get that job if you a word for me.

put up

put in

put out

8. You should stop running me
.....

over

out

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

down

9. They fought bravely but in the end they had to
.....

give up

give in

give off

10. She her emotions.

gave out

gave vent to

gave off

11. The speaker was going to conclude his address but the audience wanted him to

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

..... for another fifteen minutes.

go on

take on

put on

12. I couldn't what she said.

figure out

make up

take in

Answers

Even though she is a graduate, she cannot put her ideas across in English.

If you want to lose weight, you must cut down on your consumption of fast food.

They have put off the meeting.

He passed away after a prolonged battle with cancer.

She takes after her grandmother.

Nobody can get along with him. He has such a short temper.

I will get that job if you put in a word for me.

Phrasal Verbs Exercise

You should stop running me down.

They fought bravely but in the end they had to give in.

She gave vent to her emotions.

The speaker wanted to conclude his address but the audience wanted him to go on for another fifteen minutes.

I couldn't figure out what she said.