Phrasal Verbs With Put

This grammar exercise tests your ability to use phrasal verbs with put. Complete the following sentences with an appropriate preposition or adverb particle.

1. Here is your new blanket. Put it .... in the closet.

off

out

away

2. Once you have finished playing with your toys, put them ....

off

back

out

3. My brother is a bully. He tries to put me .... every time I open my mouth.

away

down

4. The dog was terminally ill. So we decided to put him ....

away

down

up

5. If you don't mind, I would like to put .... a suggestion.

up

in

forward

6. If you keep putting .... that assignment, you will never finish it.

up

off

away

7. His rude manners really put me ....

up

out

off

8. You won the first prize! No way - you are putting me ....

up

on

9. Please put .... your coat. I am taking you to the doctor.

over

on

in

10. Much of the building had already been destroyed before the firemen managed to put .... the fire.

off

out

away

11. Will it be alright if I arrive a little early? I am asking this because I do not want to put you .... in any way.

off

out

away

12. Can you put me .... to the manager, please?

forth

through

out

Answers

1. Here is your new blanket. Put it away in the closet.

2. Once you have finished playing with your toys, put them back.

3. My brother is a bully. He tries to put me down every time I open my mouth.

4. The dog was terminally ill. So we decided to put him down.

Phrasal Verbs With Put

5. If you don't mind, I would like to put forward a suggestion.

6. If you keep putting off that assignment, you will never finish it.

7. His rude manners really put me off.

8. You won the first prize! No way – you are putting me on.

9. Please put on your coat. I am taking you to the doctor.

10. Much of the building had already been destroyed before the firemen managed to put out the fire.

11. Will it be alright if I arrive a little early? I am asking this because I do not want to put you out in any way.

12. Can you put me through to the manager, please?