

The positive, comparative and superlative degrees

An adjective can exist in three forms - positive, comparative and superlative. The positive form is the base form of the adjective. The comparative form expresses a higher degree of some quality. The superlative form expresses the highest degree.

Fill in the blanks with the comparative or superlative form of the adjective given in the brackets.

1. How is your mother today? Is she any
.....?

good

better

best

2. In India May is ..... than June.

hot

hotter

hottest

3. Julie is ..... than her sister.

The positive, comparative and superlative degrees

pretty

prettier

prettiest

4. Who is the ..... girl in your class?

beautiful

most beautiful

more beautiful

5. Which is the ..... of all metals.

precious

more precious

most precious

The positive, comparative and superlative degrees

6. Her husband is ten years
..... than her.

old

older

oldest

7. All of us are bad singers, but I sing the
..... of all.

bad

worse

worst

8. I think you require a ..... diet.

nutritious

more nutritious

The positive, comparative and superlative degrees

most nutritious

9. Which is the ..... part of India?

dry

drier

driest

10. It was the ..... moment of my life.

proud

prouder

proudest

Answers

1. Is she any better?

The positive, comparative and superlative degrees

2. In India May is hotter than June.
3. Julie is prettier than her sister.
4. Who is the most beautiful girl in your class?
5. Which is the most precious of all metals?
6. Her husband is ten years older than her.
7. All of us are bad singers, but I sing the worst of all.
8. I think you require a more nutritious diet.
9. Which is the driest part of India?
10. It was the proudest moment of my life.

Notes

The comparative adjective is usually followed by the preposition than. The superlative adjective should be used with the article the.