

Prefixes Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The newspaper led a campaign against social
.....

unjustice

injustice

non justice

2. His affairs brought to the family.

mishonor

dishonor

unhonor

3. There are stars in the sky.

unnumerable

Prefixes Exercise

innumerable

disnumerable

4. You should never do business with
..... people.

unhonest

dishonest

inhonest

5. Gasoline has a strong but odor.

disoffensive

unoffensive

inoffensive

Prefixes Exercise

6. I am afraid I caught you at an moment.

unopportune

inopportune

disopportune

7. An amount of money was spent on that project.

inordinate

unordinate

non ordinate

8. He has a/an appetite.

unsatiable

insatiable

Prefixes Exercise

non satiable

9. Remove all items from the list.

dispensable

ispensable

10. The accident her.

disfigured

unfigured

misfigured

11. The letter made him with anger.

insane

Prefixes Exercise

unsane

nonsane

12. He described the problem in a/a
..... way.

dispassionate

unpassionate

inpassionate

Answers

The newspaper led a campaign against social injustice.

His affairs brought dishonor to the family.

There are innumerable stars in the sky.

You should never do business with dishonest people.

Gasoline has a strong but inoffensive odor.

I am afraid I caught you at an inopportune moment.

An inordinate amount of money was spent on that project.

He has an insatiable appetite.

Remove all dispensable items from the list.

The accident disfigured her.

The letter made him insane with anger.

Prefixes Exercise

He described the problem in a dispassionate way.