

Preposition After Verbs

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate preposition.

1. I spoke the man waiting outside.

to

with

Either could be used here

2. Who were you talking?

to

on

at

3. When I feel upset, I listen soft music.

at

Preposition After Verbs

to

with

4. You should apologize him.

for

to

with

5. Can you explain this theory
me?

for

to

at

Preposition After Verbs

6. She explained me why she was late.

at

to

No preposition

7. I have written her.

for

to

No preposition

8. I phoned him because I wanted to talk.

to

at

Preposition After Verbs

No preposition

9. She didn't answer my question.

to

of

No preposition

10. I called him and he came at once.

at

to

No preposition

11. Have you replied his email?

Preposition After Verbs

to

for

No preposition

12. Can I you a question?

ask

ask to ask for

Answers

1. I spoke to / with the man waiting outside.
2. Who were you talking to?
3. When I feel upset, I listen to soft music.
4. You should apologize to him.
5. Can you explain this theory to me?
6. She explained to me why she was late.
7. I have written to her.
8. I phoned him because I wanted to talk.
9. She didn't answer my question.
10. I called him and he came at once.

Preposition After Verbs

11. Have you replied to his email?
12. Can I ask you a question?