

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

Fill in the blanks with a preposition + relative pronoun.

1. Janet, I stay, is an architect.

with who

of whom

with whom

2. I bought some grapes I extracted the juice.

of which

from which

with which

3. Fortunately I had travel insurance I would have been in real trouble.

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

without that

without which

without whom

4. This is Peter I was talking.

about whom

about who

about that

5. The knife he cut the bread was not very sharp.

with which

with that

with what

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

6. She has three children all are doctors.

of whom

of that

of which

7. She has written several stories, most I have read.

of that

of which

of whom

8. I tried on several jackets, none of fitted me perfectly.

that

which

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

whom

9. He has written a novel, the name of I can't remember now.

that

which

whom

10. He got married again, surprised nobody.

which

that

whom

11. I bought a straw I drank

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

the juice.

with whom

with which

with that

12. He has a daughter, the name
..... I can't remember.

of that

of whom

of which

Answers

Janet with whom I stay is an architect.

I bought some grapes from which I extracted the juice.

Fortunately I had travel insurance without which I would have been in real trouble.

This is Peter about whom I was talking.

The knife with which he cut the bread was not very sharp.

She has three children all whom are doctors.

Preposition + Relative Pronoun Exercise

She has written several stories, most of which I have read.

I tried on several jackets, none of which fitted me perfectly.

He has written a novel, the name of which I can't remember now.

He got married again, which surprised nobody.

I bought a straw with which I drank the juice.

He has a daughter, the name of whom I can't remember.