

Present perfect tense exercise

Write sentences in present perfect tense using the words or phrases given in each question.

1. Jane from office.

returns

returned

has returned

2. She a novel.

wrote

has written

have written

3. He in ten films.

acted

has acted

Present perfect tense exercise

have acted

4. I not received your letter.

have

has

had

5. I have never of that place.

hearing

heard

hearded

6. She lost her money.

has

Present perfect tense exercise

have

had

7. Look, what John me!

gave

has given

had given

8. Police 80 suspected drug traffickers in raids.

has arrested

have arrested

had arrested

Present perfect tense exercise

9. A 24-year old woman
killed in an accident.

have

has

has been

10. Honey, I my keys.

have lossed

have lost

have losed

11. I six phone calls since lunchtime.

have answered

had answered

Present perfect tense exercise

has answered

Answers

1. Jane has returned from office.
2. She has written a novel.
3. He has acted in ten films.
4. I have not received your letter.
5. I have never heard of that place.
6. She has lost her money.
7. Look, what John has given me!
8. Police have arrested 80 suspected drug traffickers in raids.
9. A 24-year old woman has been killed in an accident.
10. Honey, I have lost my keys.
11. I have answered six phone calls since lunchtime.

Notes

The present perfect tense form is made with has / have + past participle form of the verb. Questions are made by putting has / have before the subject. Negative forms are made by putting not after has / have.

Present perfect tense exercise

He has returned the parcel. (Affirmative)

He has not returned the parcel. (Negative)

Has he returned the parcel? (Question)