

Relative Pronouns Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate relative pronoun.

1. The people walked in just now seem to be rich.

who

whom

which

2. The girl answered the phone seemed rather clueless.

who

whom

which

3. Where is the person called the police?

who

Relative Pronouns Exercise

whom

which

4. I have lost the paper on
..... I had written her address.

that

which

what

5. She is the woman I have always wanted to marry.

who

whom

which

Relative Pronouns Exercise

6. The woman child had gone missing was frantic.

who

who's

whose

7. I know a girl father is an artist.

which

whose

who's

8. The man bag was stolen complained to the police.

who

Relative Pronouns Exercise

whose

who's

9. Who is that girl is sitting beside James?

who

who's

which

10. I talked to a man had just returned from an overseas trip.

who

whom

which

Relative Pronouns Exercise

11. He has nothing to lose has no worries.

who

whom

which

12. The woman you can see over there is my cousin.

who

whom

which

Answers

1. The people who walked in just now seem to be rich.
2. The girl who answered the phone seemed rather clueless.

Relative Pronouns Exercise

3. Where is the person who called the police?
4. I have lost the paper on which I had written her address.
5. She is the woman whom I have always wanted to marry.
6. The woman whose child had gone missing was frantic.
7. I know a girl whose father is an artist.
8. The man whose bag was stolen complained to the police.
9. Who is that girl who is sitting beside James?
10. I talked to a man who had just returned from an overseas trip.
11. He who has nothing to lose has no worries.
12. The woman whom you can see over there is my cousin.