

Sentence correction: grammar exercise

Complete the following sentences with an appropriate word or phrase.

1. Sid can play tennis as as his brother.

well

good

2. The match had hardly begun it started raining.

when

than

3. That was a mistake.

sure

surely

Sentence correction: grammar exercise

4. He talks more than his brother. Needless to say, he is the more popular of the two.

pleasant

pleasantly

5. When you become a parent, you will think about children.

different

differently

6. I felt about not having won the championship.

bad

badly

Sentence correction: grammar exercise

7. Winning is not as important as playing well.

near

nearly

8. His behavior seemed a little
.....

oddly

odd

9. He didn't run enough to qualify for the race.

well

good

10. We could see the Sentence correction: grammar exercise

snow-capped mountains at a distance.

clear

clearly

Answers

1. Sid can play tennis as well as his brother.
2. The match had hardly begun when it started raining.
3. That was surely a mistake.
4. He talks more pleasantly than his brother. Needless to say, he is the more popular of the two.
5. When you become a parent, you will think differently about children.
6. I felt bad about not having won the championship.
7. Winning is not nearly as important as playing well.
8. His behavior seemed a little odd.
9. He didn't run well enough to qualify for the race.
10. We could clearly see the snow-capped mountains at a distance.