

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

Fill in the blanks with a simple present, present continuous or simple future tense form.

1. Dad tomorrow.

leaves

will leave

is leaving

2. The next term on Monday.

begins

will begin

is beginning

3. I into a new home toward the end of this year.

move

will probably move

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

am probably moving

4. I think we win

will win

are winning

5. We to the countryside.

move

will move

are moving

6. Rahul and Priya married next year.

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

get will get

are getting

7. If you say that word again, I you.

hit

will hit

am hitting

8. I here until you return.

wait

will wait

am waiting

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

9. I turn the heating on?

Will

Shall

10. It in the evening.

probably rain

will probably rain

is probably raining

11. Look at the sky. It rain.

go to

is going to

will go to

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

12. You out what happened to her.

will never find

are never finding

never find

Answers

1. Dad is arriving tomorrow.
2. The next term begins on Monday.
3. I will probably move into a new home toward the end of this year.
4. I think we will win.
5. We are moving to the countryside.
6. Rahul and Priya are getting married next year.
7. If you say that word again, I will hit you.
8. I will wait here until you return.
9. Shall I turn the heating on?

Simple Present, Present Continuous Or Simple Future

10. It will probably rain in the evening.
11. Look at the sky. It is going to rain.
12. You will never find out what happened to her.