

Subject-Verb Agreement

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form.

1. Neither praise nor censure .....
to affect him.

seem

seems

Either could be used here

2. Neither he nor his servants
..... aware of the happenings.

was

were

3. No house or shop ..... left unsearched.

was

were

Subject-Verb Agreement

4. Either he or I ..... mistaken.

am

are

is

5. Either you or he ..... right.

is

am

are

6. One of them ..... agreed to come.

has

have

Subject-Verb Agreement

7. None of these books .....
taught me anything worthwhile.

has

have

8. James, who ..... my friend,
has agreed to come with me.

is

am

are

9. I who ..... your guardian will take care of you.

am

is

Subject-Verb Agreement

are

10. A lot of work ..... to be done.

needs

need

11. A lot of people ..... to buy cars.

want

wants

12. Plenty of books ..... available on this subject.

is

are

Subject-Verb Agreement

Answers

1. Neither praise nor censure seems to affect him.
2. Neither he nor his servants were aware of the happenings.
3. No house or shop was left unsearched.
4. Either he or I am mistaken.
5. Either you or he is right.
6. One of them has agreed to come.
7. None of these books has taught me anything worthwhile.
8. James, who is my friend, has agreed to come with me.
9. I who am your guardian will take care of you.
10. A lot of work remains to be done.
11. A lot of people want to buy cars.
12. Plenty of books are available on this subject.