

Subordinate Clause Exercise

State the kind of subordinate clauses in the following sentences.

1. She said that she was going.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

2. I want to know why you are angry with me.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

3. Though it was freezing cold, I went for a walk.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Subordinate Clause Exercise

Adverb clause

4. Because she was angry, I just ignored her.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

5. We haven't decided the question of whether we should move to a bigger home.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

6. She asked me where I had been the previous night.

Subordinate Clause Exercise

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

7. I know a man who can't hear or talk.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

8. She asked me if I had seen her key.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

Subordinate Clause Exercise

9. I have a friend whose parents are doctors.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

10. She asked me if I could help her.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

11. As soon as we heard the gunshots, we rushed inside.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Subordinate Clause Exercise

Adverb clause

12. You will lose all of your friends if you continue to behave like this.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

Answers

She said that she was going. (Noun clause)

I want to know why you are angry with me. (Noun clause)

Though it was freezing cold, I went for a walk. (Adverb clause)

Because she was angry, I just ignored her. (Adverb clause)

We haven't decided the question of whether we should move to a bigger home. (Noun clause)

She asked me where I had been the previous night. (Noun clause)

I know a man who can't hear or talk. (Adjective clause)

She asked me if I had seen her key. (Noun clause)

I have a friend whose parents are doctors. (Adjective clause)

She asked me if I could help her. (Noun clause)

As soon as we heard the gunshots, we rushed inside. (Adverb clause)

You will lose all of your friends if you continue to behave like this. (Adverb clause)