

Subordinating conjunctions exercise

Complete the following sentences using appropriate subordinating conjunctions.

1. I make it a point to visit the Taj Mahal I go to Agra.
2. This is the place I used to stay when I was studying at college.
3. you get the first rank, I will buy you a car.
4. you work hard, you can't pass the entrance test.
5. I am leaving tomorrow or not you give me the permission.
6. He could not get a seat, he came early.
7. The players delivered a splendid performance they had rehearsed well.
8. Parents should give enough attention to children they will not feel neglected.
9. He is dishonest no one trusts him.
10. I will note it down I should forget.

Answers

1. I make it a point to visit the Taj Mahal whenever I go to Agra.
2. This is the place where I used to stay when I was studying at college.
3. If you get the first rank, I will buy you a car.
4. Unless you work hard, you can't pass the entrance test.
5. I am leaving tomorrow whether or not you give me the permission.
6. He could not get a seat, though he came early.

Subordinating conjunctions exercise

7. The players delivered a splendid performance as they had rehearsed well.
8. Parents should give enough attention to children so that they will not feel neglected.
9. He is so dishonest that no one trusts him.
10. I will note it down lest I should forget.