

Synonyms Exercise

1. The impudent child antagonized his teachers.
What can replace impudent?

insolent

respectful

courteous

2. Freedom of speech is an inalienable right. What can replace inalienable?

inherent

dispensable

inviolable

3. The singer was offended by the inattentive audience. What can replace inattentive?

heedful

Synonyms Exercise

respectful

distracted

4. The improvident heir quickly spent the family fortune.

spendthrift

thrifty

penni-wise

5. It was an inauspicious moment to start. What can replace inauspicious?

propitious

providential

disastrous

Synonyms Exercise

6. She made some inane remarks about the weather. What can replace inane?

sound

sensible

ridiculous

7. The guest delivered an impromptu speech. What can replace impromptu?

improvised

rehearsed

premeditated

8. There we came across many impoverished children. What can replace impoverished?

destitute

Synonyms Exercise

fecund

affluent

9. The nuptial ceremony was very brief. What can replace nuptial?

religious

conventional

matrimonial

10. The room was filled with noxious fumes. What can replace noxious?

sanitary

salubrious

pernicious

Synonyms Exercise

11. Some animals are nocturnal feeders. What can replace nocturnal?

diurnal

maternal

nightly

12. How can he be nonchalant in all this trouble? What can replace nonchalant?

unaffected

stirred

moved

Answers

1. The impudent child antagonized his teachers. (impudent = insolent)
2. Freedom of speech is an inalienable right. (inalienable = inviolable)

Synonyms Exercise

3. The singer was offended by the inattentive audience. (inattentive = distracted)
4. The improvident heir quickly spent the family fortune. (improvident = spendthrift)
5. It was an inauspicious moment to start. (inauspicious = disastrous)
6. She made some inane remarks about the weather. (inane = ridiculous)
7. The guest delivered an impromptu speech. (improvised)
8. There we came across many impoverished children. (destitute)
9. The nuptial ceremony was very brief. What can replace nuptial? (matrimonial)
10. The room was filled with noxious fumes. What can replace noxious? (pernicious)
11. Some animals are nocturnal feeders. What can replace nocturnal? (nightly)
12. How can he be nonchalant in all this trouble? What can replace nonchalant? (unaffected)