

Types Of Subordinate Clauses

In the following sentences state whether the subordinate clause is an adverb clause, adjective clause or noun clause.

1. They serve God well who serve His children.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

2. Quarrels won't last long if the fault is only on one side.

Adverb clause

Adjective clause

Noun clause

3. That you should say so surprises me.

Noun clause

Types Of Subordinate Clauses

Adverb clause

Adjective clause

4. Your statement that you found the money in the closet cannot be believed.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

5. I asked the boy how old he was.

Noun clause

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

Types Of Subordinate Clauses

6. Uneasy lies the head that wears the crown.

Noun clause

Adverb clause

Adjective clause

7. Youth is the time when the seeds of character are sown.

Adverb clause

Adjective clause

Noun clause

8. Servants who are honest are trusted.

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

Noun clause

Types Of Subordinate Clauses

9. Because I like you, I shall help you.

Adverb clause

Adjective clause

Noun clause

10. The dog followed the boy wherever he went.

Adjective clause

Noun clause

Adverb clause

11. If I like it, I will buy it.

Adjective clause

Noun clause

Adverb clause

Types Of Subordinate Clauses

12. They spoke in a low voice so that the child would not wake up.

Adjective clause

Adverb clause

Noun clause

Answers

1. They serve God well who serve His children. (Adjective clause)
2. Quarrels won't last long if the fault is only on one side. (Adverb clause)
3. That you should say so surprises me. (Noun clause)
4. Your statement that you found the money in the closet cannot be believed. (Noun clause)
5. I asked the boy how old he was. (Noun clause)
6. Uneasy lies the head that wears the crown. (Adjective clause)
7. Youth is the time when the seeds of character are sown. (Adjective clause)
8. Servants who are honest are trusted. (Adjective clause)
9. Because I like you, I will help you. (Adverb clause of reason/cause)
10. The dog followed the boy wherever he went. (Adverb clause of place)
11. If I like it, I will buy it. (Adverb clause of condition)
12. They spoke in a low voice so that the child would not wake up. (Adverb clause)