

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

Some verbs take a preposition before the object. These prepositions are called dependent prepositions and are usually followed by a noun or ing form. There are several such verb + preposition combinations. Some verbs take a preposition before the object.

These prepositions are called dependent prepositions and are usually followed by a noun or ing form. There are several such verb + preposition combinations. This grammar exercise tests your understanding of common verb + preposition combinations.

1. Do you believe ghosts?

in

on

about

2. She spent years caring her sick husband.

about

for

of

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

3. This spray will protect you most insects.

of

from

with

4. He has yet to recover his illness.

of

from

with

off

5. He won the national bravery award for saving his friend drowning.

from

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

of

at

6. He worked hard to succeed life.

at

in

on

7. I don't approve your conduct, young man.

with

of

off

about

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

8. He suffers asthma.

of

from

with

9. That shampoo smells jasmine.

about

of

off

10. Please don't make a noise. I want to concentrate my studies.

of

on

from

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

11. My husband and I can't agree anything but we love each other.

on

with

about

12. Please refer the glossary for more information.

at

with

to

Answers

1. Do you believe in ghosts?
2. She spent years caring for her sick husband.
3. This spray will protect you from most insects.
4. He has yet to recover from his illness.
5. He won the national bravery award for saving his friend from drowning.

Verb And Prepositions Exercise

6. He worked hard to succeed in life.
7. I don't approve of your conduct, young man.
8. He suffers from asthma.
9. That shampoo smells of jasmine.
10. Please don't make a noise. I want to concentrate on my studies.
11. My husband and I can't agree on anything but we love each other.
12. Please refer to the glossary for more information.