

Verb + prepositions exercise

Many verbs require prepositions before their objects. Note that the preposition is dropped when there is no object.

Complete the following sentences using appropriate prepositions.

1. Why are you looking ..... me like that?

on

at over

2. I would like you to listen ..... this.

with

at

to

3. Let us talk ..... your new projects.

Verb + prepositions exercise

with about

for

4. I ran ..... James at Victoria Station yesterday.

into

at

for

5. How long have you been married ..... her?

with

to

for

Verb + prepositions exercise

6. I am thinking ..... studying engineering.

with

of

at

7. A week after the accident he died ..... his injuries.

from

with

for

8. I half believe ..... life after death.

in

at

Verb + prepositions exercise

with

9. I must apologize ..... disturbing you.

for

about

to

10. He left the firm because he didn't agree ..... their sales policy.

with

at

to

Verb + prepositions exercise

Answers

1. Why are you looking at me like that?
2. I would like you to listen to this.
3. Let us talk about your new projects.
4. I ran into James at Victoria Station yesterday.
5. How long have you been married to her.
6. I am thinking of studying engineering.
7. A week after the accident he died from his injuries.
8. I half believe in life after death.
9. I must apologize for disturbing you.
10. He left the firm because he didn't agree with their sales policy.