

Word forms exercise

The same word can exist in several different forms. For example, the word 'encourage' is a verb, but 'encouragement' is a noun. A good knowledge of the different forms of words is absolutely necessary to express your ideas. Test your knowledge of word forms with this grammar exercise.

Choose the correct answer from the options given below.

1. The verb form of 'note' is notify

notification

noticeable

2. The adjective form of 'black' is

blacken

blackish

blackened

3. The adjective form of 'courage' is

courageous

Word forms exercise

courageously

courageousness

4. The adjective form of 'ease' is easy

easiness

uneasy

5. The verb form of 'tireless' is tired

tire

tiresome

6. The adjective form of 'heaven' is

Word forms exercise

heave

heavenly

hellish

7. The adjective form of 'talk' is talking talked

talkative

8. The noun form of 'stormy' is stormed

storminess

stormful

Word forms exercise

9. The adjective form of 'wealth' is wealthiness

wealthy

unwealthy

10. The noun form of 'compete' is competition

competed

competitive

Answers

1. notify
2. blackish
3. courageous
4. easy

Word forms exercise

5. tire

6. heavenly

7. talkative

8. storminess

9. wealthy

10. competition