

Word Power | Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The boy's choice of friends landed him in trouble.

discriminate

indiscriminate

indiscriminant

2. A good CEO is for a successful firm.

dispensable

indispensable

undispensable

3. The acting chairman will serve for an time.

indiscriminate

Word Power | Vocabulary Exercise

indeterminate

indeterminant

4. Religion is a matter of to many young people.

undifference

indifference

nondifference

5. The writer was to both good and bad criticism.

undifferent

indifferent

6. He couldn't hide his

Word Power | Vocabulary Exercise

indignity

indignation

indigenous

7. An person like him can never run a country.

undecisive

nondecisive

indecisive

8. The movie was banned.

undecent

indecent

Word Power | Vocabulary Exercise

9. The boy was constantly in and out of reform school.

incorrigible

gullible

culpable

10. Most criminals come from families.

disfunctional

dysfunctional

unfunctional

11. I him ever since he sold me that defective dishwasher.

mistrust

untrust

Word Power | Vocabulary Exercise

distrust

12. I have not been able to find my ..... keys.

displaced

misplaced

Answers

The boy's indiscriminate choice of friends landed him in trouble.

A good CEO is indispensable for a successful firm.

The acting chairman will serve for an indeterminate time.

Religion is a matter of indifference to many young people.

The writer was indifferent to both good and bad criticism.

He couldn't hide his indignation.

An indecisive person like him can never run a country.

The indecent movie was banned.

The incorrigible boy was constantly in and out of reform school.

Most criminals come from dysfunctional families.

I distrust him ever since he sold me that defective dishwasher.

I have not been able to find my misplaced keys.